NO ACTION AGAINST THE INVADERS OF PILGRIM MEETING

New York, Sept. 30.—No official action will be taken against agitators who interfered with last night's meeting of delegates to the tencentenary celebration of the Landing of the Pilgrims, Alton B. Parker announced tonight.

Mr. Parker, who presided at the session which was invaded by members of the American Women Pickets for the En-the American Women Pickets for the En-forcement of America's war aims, said the disturbance was not of a nature to demand prosecution of the cenders. The meeting was the last of a series under the auspices of the Sulgrave Insti-tution and allied organizations and in-cluded in its programme besides speech-es, the presentation of tableaux repre-senting famous historical scenes of col-onization days. Representatives of Engonization days. Representatives of Eng-land and Holland and other countries were guests of honor. While the audience was gathering sev-

"The session was adjourned after Mr. Gompers had concluded as he was the last on the programme." Disturbances, Mr. Parker said, were not directed at any of the speakers and continued throughout the meeting. In a statement issued tonight, Mrs. Gertrude Corliss, president of the Pick-ets' organization, denied that women un-
